

NO. 3.

by an Accident.
 y that something happened ve really mean only that it out or in spite of previous the men who wished to con-History knows of empires een lost or saved "by accl-as the result of acts which ense—the story is narrated part of the Greville Me-he victory, in 1845, of the the Silke, Thackeray.

...at point in the battle, the
...of India, Lord Hardinge,
...ed in person, thought the ...t. Believing that his army ...stroyed and not expecting defeat, he gave his watch other things to one of his ing that they might be con-wife with the assurance that ights were about her.

is true, one of Lord Hard-also in despair, having lost through nervousness or fear, the commander of the Eagand communicated an or-he declared he had received, valry should retreat. The asked for a written order; deer admitted he had none, positively as to the intrinc-he was charged to deliver, Alexander gave the order that he should retire.

attacking them on their flank, cut off their communications. A few days later they began to retreat. The English commander-in-chief, General Sir Harry Smith, took advantage of the disorder in the Sikh ranks, and on 18 December 1845 he defeated them at the Battle of Ferozshah.

victory which saved India to was due to a nervous officer and an underdog had never rethe British troops had been the whole of India would have risen to throw off the yoke whom the Sikhs had beaten Mississippi Jug Industry.

 A correspondent of the Atlantic City writes from a Mississippi town: Five perambulating liquor been corralled in Lake county and over to the United States freeman. The four-mile law in all its pristine glory at Tip-and the amount of "smiling" been large. The marshal responds from the temperant Lake that there was more less, more hoodlumism and more than when saloons were permitted.

at there were no places where is sold, and yet barrels of it sumed every month. This pe-ment led to an investigation.
Discovery that whiskey was now Memphis is bottles here found in considerable quantity, but the mystery was found its fiery way into the people. The investigation of the discovery that there were in Lake county, about seven in all, that they were unlicensed, and sent out from place to place. No money paid, no shelter being necessary. No bar, and yet plenty of bot-

the proprietors of these gin mills their saloons about with them.
They were provided with pockets, the lining, each pocket containing a small tin of powder. If a Tiptonvillian happen-dry it was only necessary for walk along until he met the most -appearing man he ever saw, eye and walk behind the near-

e. In a twinkling a flask and a could be produced, two or three swallowed, a dice handed over saloon moved on in search of men.

Useful Hints.
If a setting hen is too indisposed in the nest continuously, let her mate days and tie the rooster on while she's resting.

The goose, in valiantly striving to ard, thoroughly cleans the chimney its wings.

an smoke a rabbit out of a bird's nest by a cigarette close enough cent of whisky on the breath sublimed by smearing usafetida mustache, your bedfellow snores and re-

...hush, tramp up a counterfeit ...and straddle his neck. If
...n't stop him, kick him out of ...such a way that his head will ...floor first. The resulting ceretion will keep him awake for t of the night and give you a doze a little.

u make a habit of keeping live your pockets, your loose change comparatively safe from your eng wife.

a take a small step-ladder with the theatre it will be very ser-when the stage is barricaded

Boycotting the Baby.

"What do you mean?" she recan," he answered with a meaning, "that you have just boyed the baby.—Boston Budget.

© 2000 Blackwell Science Ltd

HART NASH, EDWIN PRATT, ANDREW J. BATES.
 from from 1 to 5 o'clock P. M., on business day, and from 7 to 9 o'clock of DAY EVENINGS. is placed on interest on the First days of January, April, July and October OFFICE,
 Commercial St., Weymouth Landing enter, and support tracks in an instant the much for all members, also large or small. Carriage as the best of 200 ft. w. as the Party work attended to promptly and satisfactorily.

A. L. HOBART,
Washington Street, - Weymouth.

By TELEPHONE NO. 716-25
66-14

